I find the word 'Goodbye' one of the hardest words to utter and sadly it is in everyday usage here in the RMC as there is always someone moving on. When I am called upon to bid farewell to colleagues and friends, I much prefer not to use the actual word 'Goodbye' - it sounds so final. I firmly believe that if friends want to keep in touch, they will work hard to keep the relationship going. I have lost count of the number of friends I first met here in Rheindahlen although my address book will provide the evidence. Keeping in touch does take a lot of time and effort but it is worthwhile!

We have another change on the Bulletin contributors list this month as Cheryl Stamp hands over her Gastronomique columns. Cheryl has assured me that she has really enjoyed sharing her favourite recipes and on your behalf I would like to thank her for her interest and enthusiasm. I am sure she will continue to share her love of cooking with people in her next posting. Next month we welcome Hilary Field onto our team.

Finally, I would like to remind you all that without the support of our advertisers we could not produce this type of magazine; they in turn would appreciate your support.

WHY NOT VISIT

Zons

A short trip, ideal for the day out on a Saturday or Sunday, approximately, 40 minute drive.

Take the Autobahn 52 towards Dusseldorf. At Autobahn junction Kaarst/Neuss take the 57 towards Koln. Leave the Autobahn at Dormagen and follow the signs to Zons.

Zons is a small walled Middle-Aged town with picturesque alleyways and buildings. The quaint shops lining narrow streets with unusual curiosities made by local craftsmen, museums and small cafes' enhance the old world charm. The town can be viewed from the top of the 'Old Muhle' (the center of attraction), however, be prepared for a climb! Also, the other main attraction is the 'Open-Air Theatre' which holds performances throughout the Summer months.

and Brownies

Brownie and Guide Fun Day

1st Rheindahlen Brownies joined 1st Rheindahlen Guides on the last day of their camp for an afternoon of fun. The Guides and Brownies were divided into 5 mixed teams (named after different breeds of sheep) to participate in a variety of activities.

We played games, ran races and ate beefburgers and bratwurst (cooked on a

Guide Camp - 1st Rheindahlen Guides

At 1730 on Friday 3rd July we arrived at St Christopher's School. We were all put in groups and I was in the Ploughman's Patrol with Katy Davies, Katie Salmon, Kirsten Hackford and Jenny Smith. By about 1930 we had managed to put up the Patrol Tents and all other tents. On Saturday morning we played the Wide Game. We lashed three long sticks together in the shape of a large A then put up an 8 metre length of rope across the top of the A. We put the A in feet first in the stream by Grot Lake then Katrina tried to get across the river by standing on the cross of the A and being pushed across without getting wet. It worked so I thought I would have a go but the A's cross snapped. When we had mended the A everyone else in our group had a go without it snapping. I enjoyed the Wide Game most of all but the rest of the camp was good fun as well.

Rheindahlen Scout Group Hit It Big

The Beavers, Cubs and Scouts of Rheindahlen Scout Gp held a 24 hour sponsored football match and raised a staggering DM 8,000 for new sports equipment.

The aim of the event was to raise DM 5,000 to buy new equipment and to buy and repair tent stocks. Despite the gallant efforts of the Beavers it was left to the Cubs and Scouts to keep the ball moving right through the night. Early in the morning the stress was beginning to show and sleep-walking boys were seen trying to convince themselves that they were still awake in front of mirrors — later falling asleep in every possible position and in the remotest places in the gym in case any one saw them. A good day (and night) was had by all who took part. A vote of thanks is given to all the parents who came, saw, helped, slept and cheered. The help of the group leaders in the smooth running of this event was greatly appreciated by ASL Brian Peach and SL Mark Main who organised and ran the event and the boys of the group. Now all that is left is to thank all the members of the RMC who despite hiding couldn't possibly avoid all the boys and leaders conning them with sponsor forms and the clubs, messes, the English Video Shop, York restaurant and NAAFI for their donations. Next year we intend to raise DM 10,000. Be warned.

barbeque). As the main activity of the afternoon each team was tasked to make a miniature garden using materials found in the grounds of St Christopher's School together with odds and ends of craft materials. The imagination and resourcefulness of the girls produced 5 very different and interesting gardens. The sun shone all afternoon and after a final singsong and entertainment we all went home having enjoyed ourselves.

(Picture shows the Guides and Brownies with their gardens)

SCHOOLS REPORT

Industry Matters Visit

On Saturday 27 June, a group of 12 'A' level Students from Queens School departed for the UK, on a visit to various British Industries. The reason for the trip was that British students in BFG are at a disadvantage in their opportunities to observe practical examples of industry in operation in the UK.

The visit began with a tour around the RCMS at Shrivenham, an independent university which takes civilian as well as military students. It was observed that the degrees awarded at Shrivenham are very relevant to today's technological world and are therefore welcomed and looked highly upon by industry.

Tuesday saw the group visiting Sir Geoffrey Chandler, the chairman of Industry Matters an organisation set up to publicise the changing face of British Industry and to convince the general public that our economy depends fundamentally on the welfare of manufacturing industries for its survival. Sir Geoffrey gave some explanations as to why British industry had fallen behind its competitors in recent decades, and the students could then see if these malpractices were being rectified when they visited industries during the remainder of the week.

On Wednesday the students were hosted by Parker Knoll and Royal Ordnance at Westcott. Parker Knoll was an interesting contrast to the other industries as it was still very much a family run business with a traditional and small market. The Royal Ordnance site at Westcott was of particular relevance to the scientists in the party as it is the testing area for rocket motors and their propellants.

British Aerospace's Civil Division (Hatfield) and Rank Xerox (Marlow) were visited on Thursday. Some rather surprising facts came from the visit to Hatfield. These included the fact that the civil division of the company makes an annual loss which has to be supported by the military division. Also, the students were surprised at the amount of necessary wastage on the assembly line, including 80% wastage in the wing-producing area. Rank Xerox was an example of the changing face of British Industry, being in the forefront of technological innovation and development.

Finally, the students visited the Mars factory at Slough. Here they saw excellent levels of staff co-operation at all levels in the staff hierarchy, a situation which Sir Geoffrey suggested would help to make industry much more competitive once again. Every student can testify to the quality of Mars Bars, Bountys, Topics etc., as a large amount of sampling went on throughout the tour around the production line.

The trip was extremely enjoyable and informative and the students believe that it should become a permanent fixture for future students in Germany. The practical experience gained on the trip was invaluable careers information for every student who went.

Retiring After 27 years

Mrs Ann Priest retired at the end of the summer term after 27 years teaching at Queen's School. At the school's final assembly, she received the traditional handshake, a gold watch from the staff and pupils, to mark her long service. She was trained at the Royal School of Needlework, had her diploma presented to her by the Queens Mother and three years later she joined the then British Forces Education Service and was appointed to Queen's School in 1960. Though based at the Lower School, she taught children from 11-18 and in 1964 she became Head of the Textiles Department and later a member of the Design Faculty. For many years now she has been attached to the Sixth form and she will be greatly missed for the tremendous experience she had to offer the young adults. Ann was a founder member of the Music and Drama

Committee and was responsible for the costumes for such productions as diverse as: 'A Midsummer Nights Dream', 'Oliver', 'Annie Get your Gun' and 'Importance of being Earnest'. Her store of costumes has been left behind for the new Windsor School to make full use of.

Ann is retiring to her home in Oberkruchten where, with her husband Derrick, himself a familiar figure as Naafi Car Sales Manager, she enjoys her Anglo-German contacts. We wish her well!

CHAPLAINS CORNER

The word holiday is derived from Holy Day and although we may not be very aware of Holy Days in the U.K. we certainly notice their existence in Germany. Nowadays we tend to use our holidays more for a change or relaxation than to remember a particular Saint or religious festival. However by the time that you are reading this most of you will have had your holidays for the summer and I hope you found them both enjoyable and refreshing. Sadly I find that most of us may return to work refreshed but the feeling soon wears off. We will then find ourselves struggling to keep going until our next break. I had these thoughts in mind when I read a short booklet entitled "Creeds to Love and Live by" and I would like to share one of these creeds with you.

"Promise yourself to be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind. To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet. To make all your friends feel that there is something in them. To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true. To think only best. To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own. To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future. To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile. To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others. To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear and too happy to permit the presence of trouble".

These words of Christian D. Larson can be an encouragement to us all and I sincerely hope that you may find them of value in the winter months that lie ahead.

Frau Ilse Frings

In June 1945, Frau Ilse Frings was faced with a difficult choice: clearing rubble in the ruined city of Hannover, working on a farm, or employment with the British Forces, then army of occupation. Thus Frau Frings' career began on 16 June 1945 as a clerk for 502 Postal Unit. In 1958, she was transferred to Rheindahlen to West Rhine Squadron. Living in accommodation blocks near to what we now know as the 'Oase', these were happy days for Frau Frings and her German colleagues, the hostility of the immediate post-war period long gone, replaced by a feeling of cooperation and mutual commitment. Having pursued her studies of English and French and now a qualified Interpreter, Frau Frings left the postal world in 1972. In January of that year, she joined the Interpretariat, then with a staff of two, under the watchful eye of Major Ritchie. In her 15 years of dedicated service in the Interpretariat, Frau Frings has interpreted at high level meetings and has shown her translating skills on the widest possible range of texts — everything from Deutsche Bundespost Outline Regulations to a bill of health for a horse! She has seen the Interpretariat grow in strength to four, patiently passing on her invaluable knowledge to her grateful colleagues. Frau Frings' loyalty and cheerfulness, along with her immense knowledge have won her many friends in HQ BAOR. In an appropriate conclusion to her career, Frau Frings was presented to HRH the Duchess of Kent on 16 June this year, 42 years to the day since she entered employment with the British Forces.

DM3,000 Raised in a Close Shave for the British Heart Foundation

Some people will go to any lengths for charity, as three intrepid Naafi lads proved recently when they took part in a sponsored head shave to raise money for the British Heart Foundation.

The mad-cap trio Detmold butcher Nick Starling, JHQ clerk Steve Hewitt and JHQ hi-fi salesman Hugh Burke managed to raise more than DM 3,000 by losing their locks at the recent Naafi It's a Knockout day, held at the Corporation's Headquarters in Waldniel.

Roz Barrett, organiser of the BHF event and Cook in Charge at JHQ's staff restaurant, explained why that particular charity was chosen and talked about the planning behind the day.

'The lads told me they'd like to raise money for charity and we thought that the BHF was a worthwhile cause.'

'I suggested a head shave because we knew it would bring money in,' she continued.

And Roz was certainly proved right, as more than 90% of the money raised came from Naafi employees, either donated before the head shave or during the It's A Knockout Day.

Money was also raised by selling off locks of hair to the highest bidder, and the team even got a cake made especially for the occasion so that it could be raffled off.

Commenting on the success of the head shave, Roz said 'It was great and we're planning to do something even more spectacular next year.'

Hugh Burke loses his locks with careful snipping from Michelle Jackson and John Jones.

Airman in Charity Cycle Dash

'9 hrs and 250 kms later. I've done it!'

Where are you at 6 o'clock on a wet Saturday morning? Corporal Colin Robilliard, a 34 year old supply NCO at the RAFG Headquarters was recently to be found on his bike at the police station at the start of a charity cycle dash through Germany and Holland to the NATO Headquarters at Mons in Belgium, a distance of 250 kms. For Colin, this mad Saturday behaviour had two purposes; to break three Service cycling records set in 1983 and to raise money for the London based Asthma Society. Sponsored by the YWCA and Rheindahlen Video Centre and assisted by his wife and 2 supporters, Colin was after the speed records for Rheindahlen to Brunssum, Brunssum to Mons and the overall Rheindahlen to Mons one. The first record fell when Colin, riding through light rain and into the wind, knocked over 45 minutes off the time to Brunssum. In spite of wrong turns in Belgium and two punctures in quick succession, Colin reached Mons in 7 hours 33 minutes chopping over 3 hours and 47 minutes off the previous Brunssum to Mons time. This gave him an overall time from Rheindahlen to Mons of 9 hours 1 minute and 50 seconds, knocking an amazing 4 hours and 33 minutes off the previous record. Equally important, Colin's record ride has already raised over 1500 Deutschemarks for the Asthma Society with more still coming. Colin is always happy to receive donations for the Society at Headquarters RAF Germany, BFPO 40. His views on the run? 'It was good fun'. How about another run to improve his record? As Colin said 'Maybe next year, when I've forgotten the pain'.

COMPETITION WINNERS

Naafi Draw Winners

WO2 Richard Ford and his wife Julia couldn't believe their luck when they heard they'd won first prize in the King Edward Cigar Draw. But it was true, and King Edward representative Jim Hamilton was more than happy to resent the Fords with their first prize of a Panasonic VHS Movie Camera M5.

British Forces Germany helps to build a better future for Nicola

Little Nicola Scanlan could be one step nearer the revolutionary treatment which could change her life, thanks to British Service families living in West Germany.

Two and a half year-old Nicola, who comes from Chesterfield, has a rare condition which is caused by a chromosome imbalance - as a result she has suffered a degree of brain damage and will always be small for her age. Sadly her condition will not improve as she grows, unless she receives constant attention and stimulation. At first the future seemed bleak for the toddler, but happily help is now at hand in the shape of the Institute for the Achievement of Human Potential in Philadelphia - the hospital specialises in the treatment and education of Downs Syndrome, brain damaged and disabled children.

Now the race is on to raise enough cash to send Nicola and her parents, Peter and Gail Scanlan, to America for one week so that the institute can assess her condition and develop a learning programme for her. She will have to return six months later for doctors to review her progress and from then on the family will visit Philadelphia twice a year until the hospital is happy that Nicola can live as near normal a lifestyle as is possible.

The estimated cost for the first two visits alone is £5,000! However, little Nicki's plight has already captured the hearts and imaginations of people living in her home area - the local council has donated a substantial amount of money and other individuals and groups are raising cash.

When staff at the Wool and Craft shop at the RMC heard Nicola's story they were keen to do all they could. The Scanlan family has strong links with the Services - father Peter was in the RAF for over 10 years and once served at RAF Wildenrath and Nicola's Aunt is married to a servicemen based in Germany.

Every year the shop, manned by volunteers, donates large sums of money to charity and they were able to present the Scanlans with a cheque for £1,000 when the family visited Rheindahlen - Nicola was on hand to receive the gift which was suitably delivered in a large ball of wool!

The money will go to the Nicola Scanlan Trust Fund which has been organised by the couple - while their first priority is to get their younger daughter the treatment she so badly needs, they hope the Trust will continue to raise cash so that other children with similar conditions can travel to America.

"People really are being wonderful," said a thrilled Gail Scanlan. "We are very grateful to the shop for their kindness and we continue to be amazed at how many kind people there are around. We have had people shoving money through our letterbox and cheques arrive with every post."

Peter added. "What we are trying to do is give Nicola the type of treatment which will eventually lead to her having as normal life as possible."

If the fund raising continues to go well, Nicola and her parents could fly to Philadelphia early next year to begin treatment.

RHEINDAHLEN YOUTH CENTRE

Rheindahlen Youth Centre News

This year's summer activities programme proved very successful. It was supervised by Tim O'Brien, the Summer Student Volunteer who, At the end of August took over as a Trainee Youth Worker for one year here at Rheindahlen.

Tim is 23 years old and has just completed a degree course in Social Science at Humberside College of Higher Education. He graduated with honours in June of this year.

He has already gained some experience of working with young people through the scout movement and through teaching practices that were part of his degree course.

More recently he has represented his college at soccer and has become interested in long distance running. This year he competed in both the Sheffield and Lincoln 1/2 marathons.

After a year's experience at Rheindahlen, Tim hopes to return to the UK to study for a professional qualification in Youth and Community Work, before becoming a full time Youth Worker.

Readers will be aware from previous editions of the Bulletin that Rheindahlen was hosting a group from the UK of very poorly people, their helpers and medical staff during the first week in August. The aim was to provide a holiday of a lifetime. Due to the magnificent efforts, hard work and dedication of well over 100 adults and children from Rheindahlen and Wegberg and despite unhelpful weather our aim was achieved.

The activities of the week included a Cruise on the Rhine, a spectacular 'open day' at RAF Wil-denrath, a Garden Party at the CinC's Residence, sailing and shopping in Roermond, a visit to Köln (including the zoo) and an 'Olympic' competition against a local group of Unable people. The evenings were no less hectic with a delightful Dinner/Dance at Onkel Gustav's Restaurant, a Cheese and Wine evening, BBQ, Bavarian Night and the holiday was rounded-off with a Music Hall Night.

To run and finance such a holiday requires a lot of help and money. Next year we plan to host another group and so if you wish to help us in any way, please contact Wg Cdr M R Cannon (ext. 4372) or Sqn Ldr P A Reynolds (ext. 4718).

A CROSS

Garrison Nursery

Many of you will have read the article in the Bulletin on Mr Stanley Fleming our Garrison Gardener and Nursery Manager but do you know where the Nursery is and what it has to offer?

Location: Snyders Road opposite the PSA Yard and Windsor Lower School.

Opening Hours: Monday to Friday: 08.00 - 12.00 and 13.30 - 16.30;

Saturday: 09.00- 12.00.

At present we have a good variety of cut flowers; these are cut daily and are at very reasonable prices. There is also a limited variety of fresh vegetables available (no kartofoel).

There are wallflowers, sweet williams, pinks, pansies, lupins and other bedding plants available now. Later there will be a selection of tulip and daffodil bulbs.

Logs. If you have an open fireplace then you should be taking advantage of getting your logs in for the winter months whilst they are at a very competitive price. We will deliver full loads within the Rheindahlen Military Complex (a full load is approx ten wheel-barrows full) at a cost of DM 60, smaller loads may be picked up any day and are sold by the wheel-barrow full.

Mr Stanley Fleming has a certificate of Competence in Market Gardening gained at Agricultural College and is only too willing at any time to discuss your gardening problems and queries — just call in at our Nursery.

Last Night of the Proms Concert

Garrison Theatre, Rheindahlen, Thursday 17 September and Friday 18 September 1987 at 8pm.

Following the successes of 1985 and 1986 and the enormous support for a continuation, this year's Last Night of the Proms Concert is again to be held in Rheindahlen. Once again the music will be provided by the Band of the Royal Air Force Germany led by their Director of Music, Squadron Leader D Wood and Bandmaster Warrant Officer F Thomson.

In view of the demand the event will be held on two successive evenings, Thursday, 17 and Friday, 18 September at the Garrison Theatre, Wellington Road, Rheindahlen commencing at 8 pm.

Music is to be a mixture of old favourites and something new, a little light classical music and, of course, Land of Hope and Glory, a Sea Shanty or two and 'Jerusalem'. Dress — well Promenaders of course — so let's see all those Union Jack Bowlers, Scarfs and anything else red, white and blue; banners and flags will also be especially appreciated.

Refreshments will be available to help keep everyone happy and we shall also have a good supply of flags and balloons on sale.

Tickets (Price DM 10) will be on sale in the NAAFI Foyer on Saturday 5 and 12 September and from WO Derek Hobden, Eng and Supply Sqn, RAF Rheindahlen, telephone JHQ 4365, Sgt Frans de Leeuw, Band Secretary, Band of RAF Germany, JHQ 4658 or from Peter Griffin, Civil Secretariat, JHQ 2613.

Doors open 7 pm.

INFORMATION

Boarding School Register

It is proposed to start a 'Boarding School Register' of parents with children in boarding school education.

The register would list parents who presently have children in a boarding school and were prepared to discuss the merits or demerits of that school with parents who were in the consideration stage of boarding school education and had pinpointed that particular school as a possible choice for their child. The details contained in the register would be: name, school, contact number and tourex date.

Any parent prepared to be included in the register is requested to send their details to the SEdTO, RAF Education Centre or telephone ext 4748 or 4155.

Riding for the Disabled

This takes place every Thursday during termtime — weather permitting! — with the children from St Francis Special Playgroup and St Clements Special School. The children who are aged from 3-7 years old benefit tremendously from riding and the contact with the ponies. Each session is about three quarters of an hour and involves walking with the children — either helping them on the ponies or taking a hand with the pushchairs.

We urgently need more volunteers — knowledge of ponies is not required! — if you can spare any time on a Thursday morning between 9.00 am - 11.00 am to help please phone Su Smale MG 550630.

The 'Rams' Revival

We wish to revive the Rheindahlen Allied Marchers (RAMS) as a means of establishing communication and cooperation between all of those interested in walking. This is not intended as the preserve of an elite; the only qualification needed is the interest and determination to take part in walking events. The local 'Volkswanderung' events provide excellent opportunities to get out into the countryside with the whole family, take as much exercise as you or they feel is necessary and to meet people of like mind. Should you aspire to the depths of masochism, as experienced on the Nijmegen Marches or the Death March, we can introduce you to like minded nuts. For those who have more respect for their extremities there is a multitude of events which permit you to take your time, enjoy the scenery and stop at regular intervals (every 5-6 km) for sustenance at 'self help' prices.

Members of the nucleus from which we hope to develop the RAMS have taken part in over 30 events since January and have a full programme for the rest of the year. We meet at the Post Office and share transport to reduce costs. Why not come and give your feet an outing? For full details contact Flt Lt Francis Hanford Ext 4537, FS Robbie Roberts Ext 4096 or Sgt Dick Brew Ext 4034.

Marlborough Club

As many of you will know the Marlborough Club, which is the Army Junior Ranks Club on Rheindahlen Garrison, has been undergoing a rebuild since September of last year. Consequently only a part of the Club has been open for use since then. After a couple of delays it is now hoped that the majority of the club will re-open in December of this year.

The quite dramatic re-build has to date covered over half of the large building complex. When completed the project will have included the provision of a new enlarged shop, a new vending area and 2 refurbished bars. The bar areas will have many new features. The smaller one, which will be open during normal bar hours, will be called the Alpine bar and has been modelled on that theme. The second bar will be used for discos and entertainments events and will have an extremely modern sound and lighting system similar to the one at RAF Laarbruch. At the same time it will have a cosy atmosphere and the decoration will include numerous shields displaying the coats of arms of many famous national names.

Whilst the running of the bars and facilities will continue under the control of NAAFI, the rest of the club will come under the jurisdiction of the Garrison and the club committee. Various changes are currently taking place on the committee not least of which is the change of chairman namely from WO1 I Kidd to WO 2 K C Jones.

In order to raise general standards and restrict the number of visitors using the club, a new membership system was introduced on 1 August. This required all members to be in possession of a membership card. It is hoped that this will create a better atmosphere within the new club.

We appreciate that vast amounts of money are being spent and we hope that this will be remembered by members when the bars are re-opened.

We should like to extend an invitation to anyone on Garrison who may have some thoughts on future entertainments.

In addition to any ideas you may have, we would ask anyone who might like to join the committee to contact the Chairman c/o the club. Finally as soon as the club is open we should like to extend a warm invitation to visit the club especially on Saturday or Sunday lunchtimes when children will be most welcome.

Many callers to Patricia's Boutique are aware that Patricia donates DM1 to the St Francis Trust Fund for each customer who purchases from her. Periodically she has handed over her 'basket' of DMs to the Fund but many customers have stated they have seen no publicity or record of how much she has donated. It is a personal donation but so far she has paid in over DM 1000 to the Trust Fund.

RAF Rheindahlen Evening Classes

Woodwork Class (Beginners)

A woodwork class for beginners only is planned for the Autumn Term. The course will be an introduction to woodwork tools and basic woodwork techniques. The course will be split into two parts both on a Wednesday evening 1830 - 2000 or 2000 - 2130. The term will start on 30 Sep 87 and run for 10 weeks. Enrolment will take place at the RAF Education Centre on 3, 4 and 7 Sep 87 (0900-1200, 1400-1700).

'AO' Human Biology

This one year course will be held on a Wednesday 1900-2030 (not 1830-2000 as stated last month) starting on 16 Sep 87.

The course will prepare students for the 'AO' examination in June 1988.

GCSE Economics

Unfortunately this course has been cancelled.

GCSE English Language

There will not be a GCSE English Language class held on Thursdays.

GCSE Geography

This course will now prepare students for the 'AO' examination and not the GCSE as advertised. The course will be examined by one 2½ hour paper in Jun 88 and no field work will be required.

Big Band Concert

Because of the continual rain in July the planned Big Band Concert had to be cancelled and we apologise for any disappointment this may have caused.

The Concert will now take place on Sunday 4 Oct at the RAF Stadium 2-5 pm. No cancellation this time whatever the weather — we have acquired a very large FEST Tent.

Road Safety Campaign 18 Aug to 14 Sep 87

As a result of the latest road traffic accident figures in BFG, (particularly on camp areas), it has become apparent that reversing is still a major cause.

It is therefore the priority of the present Road Safety Campaign 18 Aug to 14 Sep 87 to remind all drivers, both Service and civilian, of the need to check behind to ensure their way is clear before reversing. It only takes a few seconds, during which time both injury and embarrassment can be prevented.

To assist all personnel in helping to prevent further accidents of this nature, posters will be displayed throughout the Station and windscreen stickers (example below) are available from the RAF Driving School, located in the MEF compound off Queens Avenue.

Are you the owner of a Japanese knitting machine ie Jones/Brother Knitmaster or Toyota? Is it tucked away under the bed or up in the attic because you gave up on it? Its not that difficult to understand and meeting and discussing the problems with several other people often helps. Why not come along to our morning meetings which are held every 2/3 weeks in an informal atmosphere in a members house. The next meeting will be held on 10 Sep at 10.00hrs. If you are interested please phone Wendy Tetlow on MG 558572.

Are you Aiming to Return to the UK and Look for Work?

If so, Project Springboard could provide the help you need to find accommodation and a job!

Project Springboard is run by the Young Women's Christian Association of Great Britain (YWCA) for any BFG dependant aged over 18 years who wishes to return to the UK and find work. Accommodation is offered at one of their residences in Central London, the Greater London area or towns in the South East of England where the employment situation is good. For the first six weeks the Project Worker, Mrs Kate Love, gives all the help necessary in finding a job and settling into life in the UK.

Last year some ten young people from BFG went back on Project Springboard and all except one are still in the UK and have found employment.

Kate Love will be visiting BAOR from September 21st to 25th inclusive and will be pleased to talk to anyone interested in applying for the Project. She will be giving a presentation at 34 AEC, on September 22nd starting at 19.00 hours, which is open to all young people, (whether aged 18 yet or not) parents and other interested persons, so why not come and find out more?

Further details are available from the Careers Office — telephone JHQ Mil 2585.

NAAFI

First of all I would like to tell you all know about a new Naafi facility that has just opened in the RMC. A brand new services shop has opened in the partly refurbished Marlborough Club which is situated on the area between Collingwood Road and Moore Road, next to the Army Gymnasium.

This new shop will in essence be a convenience store open from 0900 to 2100 everyday, including Sundays. For the single soldier/airman it will cater for all their everyday needs and for families it will be an opportunity to pop in and get a few things you forgot to get at the JHQ Naafi or for items you may have run out of at an inconvenient time. A full range of cigarettes, sweets, soft drinks, beer, liquor and wine will be stocked along with a limited range of chilled and frozen items, groceries, bread, vegetables, medicines and cleaning goods. We also sell ice cream, barbecue items and have a video hire service. More importantly the shop is open to all ranks and their families and adjacent to it, is a modern bank of vending machines situated in a bright and airy eating area which will be open for 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. This will now be a first class amenity for everyone on camp and I do strongly suggest that a visit soon will be well worth while.

Reverting now to the Naafi JHQ Complex, we are still in a state of chaos as regards the workmen fitting a new heater and ventilation system in the clothing and gifts and durables departments. By the time this issue is published both clothing departments will have been completed and the gifts and durables will be partially closed. I am reliably informed that all work will be completed by 11th September and by the 14th we shall hopefully be back to normal. I apologise for the inconvenience caused for the last five weeks but hopefully the finished product will make the inconvenience suffered seem all worthwhile. For the whole of September

Naafi will be promoting a 'Buy British' campaign which is a follow-up to our previous Dutch and German weeks. The programme will commence on 3rd September and run until 26th September. The programme will consist of 84 price reductions for the promotional period on UK sourced foodhall lines, plus a selection of clothing items, household textiles, sports-wear, audio and white goods of UK origin, all at special prices. In addition to this promotion there will also be competitions and special events at JHQ dates for which have not all as yet been confirmed. However, we do know that a Mr Mason from Wedgwood will be in the gifts and durables department from 3rd to 5th September and he is one of the few personnel from Wedgwood who are entitled to sign Wedgwood pieces as the genuine article. Regular users of the JHQ foodhall will have noticed the introduction of UK baked Mothers Pride bread in the shop. At present the experiment is confined to JHQ only whilst we evaluate the logistics of moving freshly baked bread on a daily basis from the UK to Germany. Phase two of the experiment will be to broaden the deliveries to other locations within the Naafi Rhine Region, with eventual nation wide coverage early in the New Year. The customer reaction so far has been very complimentary and the product is arriving at JHQ in a fresh condition and at slightly cheaper prices than bread previously baked at Krefeld. Eventually we shall be receiving a full range of UK bread and rolls and other bread products. However, we shall be maintaining the supply of locally baked German bread.

The Cat from Outer Space (U)

An alien space ship crash lands on earth and the military move in to investigate. Apparently no life forms are aboard. But the pilot a cat, has gone exploring and eventually befriends Dr. Frank Wilson in an attempt to repair his spaceship and make a rendezvous with the mother craft.

The main problem facing the two, is that to repair the craft they need $120,000 worth of gold. To acquire such an amount they have to make use of Jake's (the cat) special powers, so that they can make sure they get the right result in various sporting events.

But unbeknown to Frank and Jake there are a group of ruthless people who have noticed that Jake's power comes from his fascinating collar, and will go to any lengths to acquire such an item.

They also don't take into account that Jake may have fallen in love with Lucy-Belle a female feline.

With all this happening will they have time to repair the spaceship and meet the deadline?

This Walt Disney production stars Ken Berry as Frank, Sandy Duncan, Harry Morgan (Blackes' Magic and MASH) as General Stilton and Roddy McDowell.

This is great entertainment for the children, with some mums and dads having a laugh too.

Soulman (15)

101 mins

When the morning post arrives, College friends Mark Watson and Gordon Bloomfield don't know whether to open their letters or not. When they finally do they are ecstatic to learn that they have been accepted for a place at the prestigious Harvard Law School.

On a visit to tell his parents the good news Mark is devastated when his father decides to give him his manhood, and therefore allow him to pay his own way through school. Mark is shattered by the news but is determined to get to Harvard, whatever the cost.

After fruitless visits to the bank Mark decides to try for a suitable scholarship. Unfortunately the only one available is for black students. But still undaunted he presses on and with the help of some experimental sun-realises that it is not going to be a bed of roses.

C Thomas Howell is Mark Watson and he is supported well by Arye Gross as best pal Gordon Bloomfield and Rae Dawn Chong as Sarah. Also listen out for music by Isaac Hayes, Beach Boys, Otis Redding and Sly Stone.

Trick or Treat (18)

90 mins

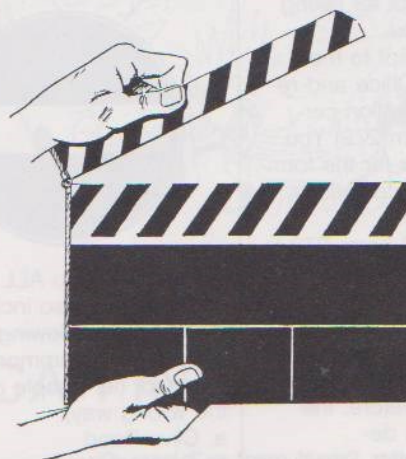

In this teenage horror, Marc Price plays rock music fanatic Eddie, whose idol is heavy metal star Sammy Curr (Toni Fields).

Eddie is devastated the day he hears that Curr has died in a hotel blaze and goes to radio D.J. "Nuke" for company and solace. Nuke presents him with the last L.P. that Curr has made and Eddie rushes home to listen to the music of his hero.

When the record is played backwards sinister messages can be heard and he accidentally reincarnates Sammi Curr who begins a campaign of terror wherever he goes, culminating in a superb climax at the schools Halloween dance.

This is well directed by Charles Martin Smith (American Graffiti) and there are some excellent special effects. Also look out for rock stars Gene Simmons (Nuke) and Ozzy Osborne in a unfamiliar role as a vicar.

POLICEMAN'S NOTE BOOK

A few tips on De-Registration of your Vehicle

Selling your car to another BFG entitled person

- Give the buyer your petrol card. Score across it 'Sold' and the date of sale.
- The buyer should then give you a receipt for taking the card from you.
- Send the receipt to the BFG Licensing Office and request a de-registration certificate (BFG Form 272) You must actually ask for the form as they do not automatically issue it.
- Send the BFG Form 272 to your Insurance Company so that they can cancel your policy. If the buyer does not register the car immediately then your insurance is still responsible. Therefore, the sooner the car is de-registered the better.

Selling Your Car to a Non BFG Entitled Person

- Once the car has been sold, return your petrol card to the BFG Licensing Office and obtain a de-registration certificate (BFG Form 272)
- Send the BFG Form 272 to your Insurance Company for cancellation of your policy (See 1d above) DO NOT give your petrol card to the buyer.

Returning to UK

- Keep the BFG registration valid until such time as you are back in the UK and have UK plates.
 - Once you have UK plates return your petrol card to the BFG Licensing Office, CPO, BFPO 40 and request a de-registration certificate. (BFG Form 272)
 - Send the BFG Form 272 to your insurance company to cancel your policy and issue a no claims bonus and refund. Remember no BFG form 272, no refund or no claims bonus can be issued.
- If you still have any queries de-registering your vehicle, write to the Command Pay Office, BFPO 40.

Calling All Cycle Owners

There has been an increased amount of offences made by cyclists, both adults and children alike. So I would like to take this opportunity to remind you all what the following road signs mean.

- No Entry - to ALL road users. Which also includes cyclists. The following roads are the most commonly misused: (ie. people going up the wrong way)
 - Clive Road
 - Oakham Way
 - Beresford Road
 - Road between the BP Garage and the German Post Office
 Offenders will be fined 20DM

- No Entry To Cyclists - A common example is the footpath between St Andrews and St Patricks Schools.
Offenders will be fined 20DM

- Warning Cycles Ahead - It is not a prohibition sign and is usually seen on approach to pedestrian crossings.

- Cycle Path - Unless this sign is signed both ways it is to be used as a ONE WAY cycle path. However all children under 9 yrs must use a cycle path, therefore it is advised that all children over that age attend a ROSPA Cycling Proficiency course at their respective schools.

Failure to use available cycle Paths Fine 5DM

Test Car: Peugeot 205 GTI 1.9

Price as Tested: £6625 + delivery + prep + plates.

Well, here it is, Peugeot's Hot Hatchback, a gleaming example in bright red with wide low profile tyres and unique alloy wheels which make this 'froggy' mobile look 'mean'. The immediate impression on looking at the car is 'ugly', but study the car in detail and you will see why this car in all its forms, from basic model to the GTI, has become so popular. Its sleek lines, from the sharp sloping hatch to the deep spoiler on the front, make it every inch a boy racer's dream.

You're eager to get inside, you climb in; the seats, half trimmed in leather, hold you firmly; get the seating position right, arms out straight, and it's like sitting in a Formula 1 racing car.

Glancing around the car you see the usual cluster of instruments expected on a car like this, tachometer, oil pressure and temp. The stereo radio/stereo cassette player with four speakers is housed in a central console above which are the digital clock and heating controls, which are very comprehensive and excellent when in operation. The car was also fitted with electric windows and central locking as standard. The test car was fitted with a glass sliding roof (optional extra), the top side of which has a mirror effect which makes for a very slick touch.

Getting back to the seats, the rear has 50/50 split and gives a credible luggage space for a small hatch. The front seats are excellent, their shape and feel are every inch GTI!

OK, let's go for a spin; my colleague John drove first and was immediately surprised at the smooth and quick acceleration compared to his own VW GTI. It was now my turn to take a drive, I will not forget it in a hurry. I slipped into the driving seat, found my ideal position and started the engine. It roared into life. I moved into first gear and cautiously pulled off. Caution went straight out of the window when I accelerated; it shot away like a dragster, now I know how a pilot feels when he experiences 'G' (any spare suits out there?). Once I got the hang of it, I was like a kid with a new toy. It drove superbly, holding the road like glue. Throw it into a bend and steer correctly and it takes a good clean line into it, accelerate on the crown and it comes out of it like a bullet. I could go on and on about its performance, but it has a couple of minus points. The dash tends to be a bit plasticky and room for rear passengers is not in abundance but you forget all this once the pedal is to the metal.

Warning: This car is not for the faint hearted!
Happy Motoring!

GASTRONOMIQUE

For my final contribution to the cookery page I have decided to concentrate upon the humble lemon. A cook's true friend, lending itself equally to both savoury and sweet dishes alike & as you'll see from the handy hints has many other uses besides.

Sunshine Chicken

A simple refreshing casserole in which lemon enhances the flavour & helps to produce delicious succulent meat.

Ingredients:

4 chicken portions

2oz butter

1 can of condensed cream of chicken soup

2 tablespoons of fresh lemon juice

½ teaspoon of paprika

½ teaspoon salt

¼ teaspoon of crushed dried tarragon

Dash of ground black pepper

Method:

Melt the butter in a frying pan and brown the chicken portions, pour off the fat. Add the remaining ingredients, cover and cook over a low heat for 45 min or until tender; stirring occasionally. Chill overnight to let the flavours develop.

Reheat until hot, garnish with lemon slices and chopped parsley

Lemon Cheesecake

A desert which is both light on the pocket as well as in flavour & is sure to be a big hit with all the family.

Biscuit Crust:

4 oz digestive biscuits crushed

1½ oz butter

½ teaspoon ground ginger

1 desertspspoon of golden syrup

Warm the syrup with the butter until melted. Stir in the biscuit crumbs and ground ginger, mix well and press them over the base of an 7 inch loose based cake tin. Chill in the fridge for 15 mins until set.

Lemon Mousse:

½ lemon jelly dissolved in 3oz of water

1 small can of evaporated milk

Juice of 1 lemon

3oz sugar,

3oz of cream cheese

Method:

Beat the evaporated milk until thick, then add the rest of the ingredients and beat well to thoroughly mix. Allow the mixture to thicken slightly before pouring onto the biscuit crust. Leave to set in the fridge, decorate with whipped cream and grated chocolate. This dish freezes very well.

Glazed Lemon Cake

Light golden sponge cake soaked in a tangy lemon sauce; this doubles up as a dessert or tea time treat

Ingredients:

4oz Soft Margarine

4oz sugar

4oz wholemeal self raising flour + ½ teaspoon baking powder

2 eggs

Grated rind of 1 lemon

Method:

Place all the ingredients in a big mixing bowl and beat together thoroughly, add a tablespoon of milk if the mixture seems too stiff.

Cook in a greased and floured cake tin at 375F Gas 4 for approx 50 - 60 mns.

Lemon Glaze

Mix 3oz castor sugar with the rind of one lemon and the juice of two. Turn the cooked cake out onto a piece of greaseproof paper & spoon the lemon glaze over immediately whilst the cake is still warm. Make sure that all the liquid is absorbed, then place on a plate to cool.

Handy Hints:

1. A little lemon peel added to acid fruits such as rhubarb or apple counteracts their acidity and cuts down the amount of sugar required for sweetening.
2. If your hands become discoloured through peeling vegetables or gardening then rubbing them with ½ a lemon helps to whiten them.
3. Rub ½ lemon round the mixing bowl before whisking egg whites, the acidity helps to increase the volume.
4. When steaming puddings or heating tins of food, add a squeeze of lemon juice to the water to prevent the saucepan turning black.
5. A squeeze of lemon juice in vegetable water helps to keep the vegetables green and reduce cooking smells.
6. A squeeze of lemon juice in water which is used to cook rice will keep it white.

The Garrison Commander Col MH White presents WO1 Kent with a clasp for his LS&GC medal and WO2 Wilson with his LS&GC medal.

Presentation of the Clasp to the Long Service and Good Conduct Medal to WO1 Kent RMP

WO1 Kent was conscripted in 1951 into the Goldstream Guards gaining promotion to Lance Sergeant and serving with distinction with the Second and Third Battalions in East Africa, BAOR and the United Kingdom. He displayed great dedication and was considered to be a first class instructor.

In late 1962 he transferred to the Corps of Royal Military Police. The highlight of his career was his promotion to Warrant Rank and appointment as Regimental Sergeant Major with the London District Provost Company, where his previous knowledge of Ceremonial and Public Duties proved an invaluable asset. During this period he was awarded the Long Service and Good Conduct Medal and the Queens Silver Jubilee Medal.

In May 1980 he transferred to the Long Service List and was employed as the British Supervisory Element with 248 German Security Unit (Berlin) and was responsible for the supervision of and liaison with some 260 German Guards, an appointment he held for 5 years.

He came to Rheindahlen Garrison in 1985 as the Officer in Charge of Sports and Estate. This particular task involves him in every day contact with all ranks, both Military and Civilian; his work throughout this period has displayed unstinting effort and he continues to serve in the same loyal and faithful manner in a post which requires diligence and patience far above normal.

WO1 Kent is due to retire in 1988 having given almost 37 years loyal service to the Army.

Presentation of the Long Service and Good Conduct Medal to WO2 R Wilson APTC

years there he attained the rank of JSgt and represented the Bn in most sports.

In Sep 71 he was posted to 1 Royal Scots in Tidworth via the Scottish Infantry Depot in Penicuik. The stay in Tidworth was brief because in Sep 72, with a view to transferring to the RMP he moved to the Depot in Chichester. On successful completion of the course there, he was posted to 16 Para Bde to undergo P Company. This he did, becoming best student on his course; he then continued to RAF Abingdon for parachute training. After this training, he exercised in Sardinia, Turkey, Cyprus and the odd visit to Salisbury Plain. Whilst in 16 Para Bde he obtained a B Grade on the Jan 73 Assistant Instructors Course. From Jan 75 to April 76 he underwent the permanent course at the School of PT, Aldershot. He was promoted to Sgt and transferred to the APTC in April 76 and was posted to 25 Fd Regt in Munsterlager. During this tour he spent 9 weeks in Canada running an adventure training camp in the Rocky Mountains.

In April 79 he was posted to the Royal Military Academy

Sandhurst. During this busy tour he instructed many courses but the most challenging being Rowallan Company. In Oct 79 he was promoted to SSgt. He went to 1st Bn Grenadier Guards in Hounslow in Dec 81, and during his tour he accompanied the Bn on an exercise in Kenya. Whilst there he led an assault on Mount Kenya, which unfortunately failed due to snow. His next task was Unit Emplaning Officer to move the Bn to and from Northern Ireland. His own job was BUZZARD at Bessbrook, reputed to be the busiest Heliport in Europe. In Aug 82 he was promoted to WO2.

In Mar 84 he received a shock as the previous six years were Guards orientated and he was posted to 21 Signal Regt in RAF Wildenrath. The contrast in military life could not have been greater. During this tour he was appointed BAOR Basketball Coach and whilst at Wildenrath he spent a great deal of time planning adventure training exercises which were very popular with everyone; since 27 May this year he has been running the Garrison Gymnasium.

NORTHAG Soccer Success

The Headquarters Northern Army Group Soccer Team returned from their 5 day Norway tour victorious having won the 'Landjut' Cup for the 4th time in six years.

The Landjut Cup (conceived by Comlandjut in 1982) is an annual tournament contested between the HQs Afnorth (Norday), BALTAP (Denmark), LANDJUT (Rensburg, N. Germany), and NORTHAG (Rheindahlen). The Northag Team consisted of players from Germany, Belgium, Netherlands and UK. They began the tournament with a resounding (5-2) against Landjut and went from strength to strength, winning the competition with results of (8-3) v Baltap and (2-0) v Afnorth. Winning the trophy was the highlight but the sights of Oslo made the trip all the more enjoyable, if not expensive.

Success for British Children in German Soccer League

Due to a faulty camera the team photo had to be retaken and the following players could not be present: Tim Luxton, John Meehan, Matthew Sutherland, Douglas Armstrong, Joshua Ayres, Neil Wallace and Thomas Foster.

The team consisting mainly of British children has recently just completed a very successful season in the local German League. They have won the league and faired well in both indoor and outdoor tournaments. The club, based in Peel near RAF Wegberg, has had a close association with the footballing children of JHQ over the last 3 years and it is hoped to extend this into the future, particularly next season. Due to postings, the boarding school factor and because we are moving up to a league with a higher age limit we now require new players aged between 10 and 12 years. Training is once weekly supervised by a qualified German coach, the fees are: DM4 monthly to cover insurances, social functions and the issue of Spieler passes. If interested contact Alan Spree on JHQ Mil 2184 or Mönchengladbach 558059.

Success at Nijmegen

At 5am on 21 July came the culmination of 6 months training when Flt Lt Sue Elliott, Sgt Dick Brew and SACW Ruth Purdie of RAF Rheindahlen set out on their first Nijmegen March. As others had fallen by the wayside in training they had been joined by JT Sharon Evans and SACW Heather Cowan from Wegberg and then had amalgamated with the Wildenrath entrants to make up a full team.

Very soon they discovered that this was unlike any other march they had attempted. There were military teams everywhere, some fast and some slow, they came from all over Europe and from the USA and Canada. Civilian participation was overwhelming, there were over 20,000 and they became pastmasters at getting in the way though they were good humoured and well intentioned throughout. Also, for some reason unknown to science, the Dutch roads seem harder than any others! On the other hand the local populace turned out in vast numbers to support and encourage the marchers and the whole atmosphere was one of friendship, optimism and good humour. You never walked alone!

The team had a tremendous asset in Heather Cowan who, until her voice died on the fourth morning, led their marching songs helping to maintain rhythm and momentum and establishing a team character. They marched faster than many and made such an impression that, at one stop, 2 young Norwegians cast themselves at Heather's feet, rendering her pink and speechless.

When an injury forced the team leader to retire Sue Elliott took command and startled everyone by producing a very big voice from a small body. Under her leadership the third and fourth days were completed in fine style. The 7 hills presented no problems and a temporary amalgamation with a Dutch Air Force team from Leeuwarden added spice to the end of the third day. The end of the fourth saw them in blue grey parading past the thousands of spectators who line the way into Nijmegen. They were sore and thirsty but proud to have completed this 100 mile march and determined to return next year.

Great Tennis on Rheindahlen Courts

The final day of the BAOR Lawn Tennis Championships held here in Rheindahlen on 16th July 1987 saw some great tennis and in particular success for two Rheindahlen ladies; Mrs Diana O'Connell and Lance Corporal Heather Baughan.

Diana, who is married to the Bulletin's former Business Manager, Steve, played a skilful match to beat Heather of 16 Signals Regiment, in the Ladies' Singles Final. To win the Ladies' Doubles, Heather teamed up with Lance Corporal Louise Callow (who, when she isn't playing tennis, is cooking and serving up some great meals in the Caernarvon Restaurant in Dusseldorf). The Mens' Doubles produced some really good tennis and the outstanding player and winner of the Mens' Singles was Lieutenant Nigel Watts of 4 Regiment Army Air Corps.

Are You Being Served? Rheindahlen Junior Tennis

The service offered by the 13 coaches during Rheindahlen's 7th Annual Junior Tennis Coaching Week not only included coverage of the game's basic strokes but also gave the players a comprehensive knowledge of tactics, etiquette and sportsmanship. 119 boys and 110 girls turned up on Sunday afternoon to be assessed and the five days coaching brought frustration to some and triumph to others. Occasional showers on the first 2 days meant some sessions had to be re-scheduled, but with 5 hours coaching behind him/her, every player was put in good stead for the Tournament which lasted 2 days and 270 matches were played on Friday alone! As Rheindahlen's young battled away on all 12 courts, the first round losers had a second chance in the Plate Competition. The most gruelling match of the whole week took place on the centre court (No 1) and lasted nearly 2½ hours. The players - Josh Ayres and William Baugniet - both of them under 12 years old and both determined to win the Group 4 Plate. The contest possessed all the skill and excitement of the Connors/Pernfors match played earlier this year at Wimbledon. Eventually Josh gained the upper hand and won, 4-6, 7-6, 6-2. For the second year running Mike De Boer won the Group 1 (under 19s) boys' competition while Sarah Law careered her way to victory in the Ladies' Group 1. A traditional barbeque was held on Saturday night and York Restaurant served us well with sausages, burgers, chops and salads. Many, many thanks to Lt Col Mike Newall and WO2 Harry Merritt for their patience and enthusiasm as Tournament organisers and referees. Thanks also to the 3 Groundsmen, Will Stocker, Robin Newall and Kelly Merritt, to the volunteers who ran the Clubhouse Shop, Sarah Flood, Angela Walden, Teresa Merritt, Sue Soffe, Linda Heavey, Stephanie Gardner and Sue Newall and above all to the Coaches, Wg Cdr Ray Greenhall, Mrs Henrietta Alderman, Mrs Diana O'Connell, Cpl Martin Burnell, Mrs Jackie Crofton, Lt Col Ray Minard, Mrs Anne Bonell, Maj Alistair Harvey, Mrs Avril Gauvain, Col Tony Gauvain, Mr Harry Holden, Capt David Lillystone and Sqn Ldr Roddy Williams.

Once again our sponsors, the NATO Shop, Coca Cola and Pioneer Mutual Insurance provided the winners and runners up with some very generous prizes. The weather, although quite hostile, did not once ruffle the happy atmosphere of the children. The prizes, presented by Mrs Anne White, were awarded to the following:

CROSSING THE BORDER IN ELMPT

You drive straight on. At the first crossing with traffic-light you follow your way straight on until the next crossing secured with traffic-lights. There you'll see a sign post with Sijben in front of you. So just cross this crossing and you are at our shop.

And with a BFG80 we deliver free of VAT.
